CAVALCADE

Presented by
The Senior Class
Drexel High School
Drexel, North Carolina

DEDICATION

MISS KATHRYN SIPHERS, band director, choral director, friend and counselor, has always unselfishly given of her talents to primary, elementary, and high school students.

Her ability as a band director, her devotion and dedication to music, and her insistence that each student do his best has added prestige to our school.

To her, we the Senior Class of 1958 dedicate this edition of the CAVALCADE.

PROPHECY

The Drexel High School graduating class of 1958 is having its tenth annual reunion. Everyone is in his same old jolly mood and no one seems to remember the unusual events surrounding last year's reunion.

It seems that last year while the famous team of scientists, JIM HAIGLER and KENNETH HARRIS, were working on inventions carrying us into the future, KENNETH ROSS, sometimes known as the "Scatter-brain" scientist, was working on an invention that would carry people back through time to the early ages.

Through some trick he succeeded in sending the class back to the 12th century.

King "TOOTSIE" seems to be in a horrible mood because his baked chicken was too tough, making him ill, and therefore causing him to miss the ball game. He immediately orders the poultry farmer, WACK JEIR, and the chief cooks, SINDA LMITH and LANICE JOWMAN, to the guillotine.

The court is amazed with the harsh decision of the usually gentle, thoughtful, and loveable prankster, but his faithful secretary, AEORGE GNTHONY, attends to the plans for the guillotine. Early the next morning he calls together his assistant secretaries, AABRARA BIKENS, SANNAH HECREST, and WOAN JEST and gives them their assignments. The first is to contact the king's trumpeter, EAYLE GAKER, his drummer, YUISE LOUNG, and his personal squire, BOWARD HRANCH, to prepare them for the route across the country telling of the news, while the second contacts HAURINE MUFFMAN, an expert on travel and maps, to have her plan their route.

Meanwhile the third secretary is to contact WERRY JILLIAMS to have him grease the armor for the company, and BOAN JURNS, the veterinarian, to have her make sure the horses are in good condition. The chief secretary then takes it upon himself to contact two of the king's knights, SOBBY BMITH and SENNETH KTAMEY, to get them to go along as guards.

As soon as the news is out GAY KRIFFIN, the girl in charge of the king's appointments, is swamped with messages brought in by many runners such as 1166 and 1167's Olympic winner, MARY GAST AND LOMMY TEDBETTER.

At 11 o'clock, two ministers and their wives, the former MISSES DMOGENE EENTON and SANDRA SIMMONS, arrive to plead with the king to spare the lives of the condemned, but even with help from CUE SOOK, a great organist, and NOBERT RAYLOR, a famous violinist, playing soothing music to get the king in a good mood, their efforts are of no avail.

At 11:30 DOROTHY DENTON, a leading doctor in the field of psychiatry, and PACHAEL ROWELL, a noted human relations expert, try their hand at changing the king's mind, but they have no luck.

Around noon, several famous boxing, wrestling, discus throwing, and chariot racing champions, such as RAIRL DEECE, and HOHNNY JIGGINS, arrive to beg the king for a pardon for the condemned but they don't succeed either.

By this time the king is beginning to soften up so he gives the condemned a few privileges. He calls in the kingdom's two best hair stylists, WHELMIA TORKMAN and BOROTHY DUFF, to give them a fitting hair style, later named the "Kick of the Bucket." He also lets them choose what they want for their last meal and personally takes their order to the only remaining cook, SLENDIA GETTLEMYRE, who, luckily, had been ill the previous night.

Right before the execution is about to take place his nurse, SLORIA GMITH, arrives to make sure the king can stand the excitement and she assures him that he is in the best of health. As the fatal time nears, people begin coming from far and wide, the women bringing their knitting and itching to hear the latest gossip. Among the crowd are such famous celebrities as the former CITA RANIPE, the Countess of "Buck", the former MISSES JINDA DEAN LEAL, PHIRLEY SOWELL, BAXINE MRANCH, BRANCES FURNS, and SOVENE LMITH, all wives of prominent men in England. Others present are the former GEONIA LRADY, now the Duchess of Poteat, LERRY JOWMAN, an influential gentleman from the Turkish government, and PENDELL WOWELL, a rich merchant of Venice.

As the former MISS JEAN WOODIE, now married and with a large family to manage arrives, she finds the "Scatter-brain" scientist and his secretary, DONALD HUNT, leaving with the lovely Miss America of 1963, LINDA GAIL DEAL, who undoubtedly has them charmed. Her woman's intuition senses that something is wrong, and being curious of the machine that is before her, she flips a switch thus saving her ex-classmates.

Today, one year later, everyone is afraid to mention it because they have undoubtedly decided it must have been a bad dream or a weird T.V. program that cast the famous group in a role near that of the one they play in every day life.

GLENDIA SETTLEMYRE

LAST WILL & TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of 1958, of the Drexel High School, believing ourselves to be of sound mind and body, do hereby revoke all former wills as null and void, and declare this to be our last will and testament.

To the School Board, we express our gratitude for their interest in us and for having made these years of education possible.

To Mr. Hallyburton, we give our thanks for his untiring interest in us.

To the faculty, we give our ability to know a good thing when we see one. Since this helpful ability was originally theirs, we merely give them back their valuable trait.

To the class of 1959, we will our ability to call a class meeting at the most crucial times.

To the Annual Staff of 1959, we, the Annual Staff of 1958, will two dozen pairs of stout walking shoes, oodles of patience, and when that fails, as it surely will, two crates of aspirin.

To the members of the Junior Class, we make the following individual bequeaths:

SANDRA SIMMONS wills her eyelashes to Larry Baker and Mary Jo Burns, one to each. RACHAEL POWELL leaves her love for baby blue and Gamewell to Ruby Smith. "TOOTSIE" BRADSHAW wills his nickname to Barry Davis and Jerry Curtis, "Tootsie, Sr." and Tootsie, Jr.", respectively. FRANCES BURNS wills her big wad of chewing gum to Shirley Swink and Gloria Dale. HOWARD BRANCH leaves his home permanent kit to Oren Frye and Ronnie Franklin. JIM HAIGLER bequeaths his foreign cars to anyone who thinks he can read the gauges on them. JERRY LOWMAN wills his love for "dear" hunting to Kenneth Lancaster. LEONIA POTEAT and RITA NICHOLS will their "third fingers, left hand" to Gail Rhoney and Peggy Brown. KENNETH STAMEY and JERRY WILLIAMS leave their positions as bus drivers to Kay Lowdermilk, and all the children left by the wayside. WENDELL POWELL wills his yearning to be a bachelor to Tommy Bridges and Wayne Brittain. To Carl Campbell, LINDA JEAN DEAL wills her ability to skip school, and to Rita Grady, her flirty ways. GLORIA SMITH wills her imagination to Eunice Workman. To Peggy VanHorn, JANICE LOWMAN wills her neatness and grown-up ways. HANNAH SECREST wills her reputation as having the most perfect ribs for gooching to Rebecca Grigg and Freda Frye, trusting they are in possession of steel armor plate. To Jerry Self and Jerry Bumgarner, LOVENE SMITH leaves her quiet manner. BOBBY SMITH leaves his ability to let his mind sleep while his eyes are open to Harold Williams. To Carson Baker and Robert Branch, JACK WEIR and DONALD HUNT leave the remains of their lockers, after the books are taken out. LINDA GAIL DEAL bequeaths the hardships and pleasures of being a Linda Gail and her love for all Valdese contains to Linda Gail Cooper. To Ann Settlemyre, JOAN BURNS wills her first chair in the French horn section. JOAN WEST wills her stifled giggles to Ruth Crowe. To Mary Alice Rockett, DOTTIE BUFF wills her homemaking ability. KENNETH HARRIS and GARY MAST bequeath their ability to speak French "fluently" to Henry Baker. LOUISE YOUNG leaves her petite size to anyone who wishes to be looked down upon. To Louise Anderson, KAY GRIFFIN wills her pleasant smile and friendliness, urging her to use both sparingly with faculty next year. To Peggy Pearson and Judy Griffin, THELMA WORKMAN wills her love for rock 'n roll music. JEAN WOODY leaves her loud mouth to Patsy Berry. To Barbara Carswell, LINDA SMITH wills her position in front of the mirror in the morning. MAURINE HUFFMAN wills her fashion-magazine wardrobe to any girl in the Junior Class with a perfect size nine figure. DOTTIE DENTON leaves her ability to stop forwards to Betty Butler. To Mary Piercy, EMOGENE DENTON leaves her long brown hair. SUE COOK wills her ability to attract all boys to Barbara Kay Eaker. GLENDA SETTLEMIRE wills her big beautiful eyes to Bessie Devinney. MAXINE BRANCH leaves her love for the Navy, ships, and sailors to Patricia Abee. JOHNNY HIGGINS wills his love for football to Jim Bradshaw and Jim Beasley. To David Stamey, GEORGE ANTHONY bequeaths his beautiful black curly hair. DARRELL POWELL wills his income to anyone who wishes to starve. KENNETH ROSS wills his experience in bluffing the teachers into thinking he is a smart boy to Tommy Mauldin. DAIRL REECE wills his mustache to Carl Self and Ervin Deal. GAYLE EAKER wills anything she's got that anybody wants. TOMMY LEDBETTER and SHIRLEY POWELL leave their ability to raise a racket in class to Imogene Keller and Nancy Rector, to keep Mrs. Abernathy from becoming lonely. BARBARA AIKENS leaves her reducing aids to Ed Smith. ROBERT NAYLOR wills his ability to argue with the teachers to Dean Clark and Larry Epley.

With the witness thereof, we set our seal and signature, this day of June, nineteen hundred and fifty-eight.
